White-Spinner Construction awarded nineteenth consecutive Construction Safety Excellence Award by Associated General Contractors

MOBILE, Ala. (April 29, 2022) — Earlier this week, the Mobile section of the Associated General Contractors (AGC) awarded White-Spinner Construction (WSC) with the company's nineteenth consecutive Construction Safety Excellence Award. The award was presented to WSC's Director of Safety and Compliance, Adrien Cordero, at the Country Club of Mobile on Tuesday, April 26.

Construction Safety Excellence Awards recognize construction companies that exemplify a substantial commitment to safety, compliance, occupational health standards and risk management. White-Spinner Construction was recognized in the Building Division for companies that worked between 300,000 and 350,000 hours in 2021. The company has been recognized by AGC for safety excellence every year since 2003.

White-Spinner Construction is a certified Grade A contractor by ISNetworld and has an Experience Modification Rating (EMR) of 0.80, which is well below the industry average. The company works diligently to foster and maintain a culture in which safety, quality and production are key.
